

INTRODUCTION

According to futurist Alvin Toffle, “the illiterate of the 21st century will not be those who cannot read and write, but those who cannot learn, unlearn, and relearn.”

Our speaker Craig Zablocki is listed as one of the top speakers in the country by the Society of Human Resource Management, and he is an expert in the art of “unlearning”.

Craig presents to a wide range of Fortune 500 companies, legislators, public service and healthcare professionals, college campuses, non-profit service organizations, and victim rights groups. He has shared the platform with President George Bush, Vice President Al Gore, world-renown management consultant Tom Peters and some of the top minds in the field of human potential.

Get ready to laugh at the idiosyncrasies of life and take an honest look at how you might “up your game”, personally and professionally.

Please welcome, Craig Zablocki.....
